

Historic Tree In Midlands

TOP LEFT: The King, then Duke of York, planting a young oak tree at Mona Vale, Ross, during his visit to Tasmania in 1927. TOP RIGHT: The oak as it is today. In the background is the stately old Mona Vale homestead. RIGHT: Mr Algy Bean, veteran gardener, who dug the hole for the King to plant the tree.

